PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Ransom & Randolph's Technical Team Brings Unparalleled Technical Knowledge & Expertise to the Industry

Maumee, OH – June 5, 2018 – Ransom & Randolph's (R&R) technical team brings an unparalleled level of technical knowledge and expertise to the industry.

With over 130 years combined experience, R&R's US and EU technical team is comprised of:

EU: Bastian Schulte, Application Engineer; Carel Wegman, Application Engineer; Michal Kubis, Eastern European Technical Sales; and Jakub Nowak, European Technical Sales Manager

In addition, R&R maintains the largest, most advanced product application/development laboratory and research foundry for benefit of the industry. To ensure that products will perform as expected in customers' different environments, R&R's research foundry is appropriately equipped to cast ceramic shell, industrial mold, jewelry and dental molds.

With unique testing equipment, R&R is the only industry supplier able to look at shell strength and flexibility properties in real-time and at temperature. These resources are used to develop new products, analyze material performance and service customer needs.

R&R's uncompromising commitment to upgrading the technology and efficiency of investment casting foundries has benefited casters around the world. Their technical team supports customers with a focus on constant improvement. R&R continues to see solutions and provide innovations which lead the precision investment casting industry into the future.
